Education

Inclusion

As far as Jairos Jiri Association is concerned, Inclusion is about a sense of belonging, about feeling respected, valued for who you are. The term inclusion is an all-encompassing practice of ensuring that people of different abilities, sex, age, religion etc, belong, are engaged and are connected to the goals and objectives of the whole wider society.

Inclusion is about society changing to accommodate difference, and to combat discrimination. It sees society as the problem, not the person.

Inclusive education is a goal Jairos Jiri Association seeks to achieve and a process that all development efforts are inclusive of persons with disabilities.
It is about the centrality of persons with disabilities in how JJA carries out its work and about comprehensive accessibility. That is, access to the built environment, information, communications and other infrastructure.

Inclusion furthermore is about human rights. That is, people with disabilities, like others in their community should enjoy their human rights and achieve their full participation in society.

Jairos Jiri Association envisages an inclusive nation of Zimbabwe in which all persons with disabilities enjoy their human rights and achieve their full potential.
As a development organisation, Jairos Jiri Association is committed to improving the life of persons with disabilities in the low-income country of Zimbabwe by advocating for:

• Reduction in the occurrence of preventable impairments
• Inclusion of PwDs in the social, economic and political life of communities.
• Inclusive and accessible development cooperation

In simple terms JJA’s aim is to bring access to healthcare, education, rehabilitation and livelihood opportunities to many persons with disabilities in Zimbabwe.
Inclusive education is about how communities develop and design their schools, classrooms, programmes and activities to enable all students learn and participate together.

It also means that all students attend and are welcomed by their local schools in age-appropriate, regular classes and are supported to learn, contribute and participate in all aspects of the life.

_all children benefit from inclusive education which allows them to:_

- Develop individual strengths and gifts with high and appropriate expectations for each child.
• Work on individual goals while participating in the life of the classroom with other students their own age

• Involve their own parents in their education and in the activities of their local schools.

• Foster a school culture of respect and belonging. Inclusive education provides opportunities to learn about and accept individual differences, lessening the impact of harassment and bullying

• Developing friendships with a wide variety of other children, each with their own individual needs and abilities

• Positively affect both their school and community to appreciate diversity and inclusion on a broader level
Jairos Jiri Association seeks to transform mainstream schools based on social justice principles in which all students are presumed competent, welcomed as valued members of all regular education classes and extra-curricular activities in their local schools.

Students with disabilities should fully participate and learn alongside their same age peers in regular education instruction based on the ordinary education curriculum and experience reciprocal relationships at school.

JJA supports diversity in the classroom and in the community and recognizes the fundamental right to, and reciprocal benefits of inclusive education for students with and without disabilities. They learn together, they play together, they grow together and are nurtured together.
The main aim is that students with disabilities should be entitled to be free from discrimination and are to be provided with equal opportunity to learn what other students are expected to learn.

These are rights guaranteed by the Zimbabwe Education Act 1981. However, despite clear legal rights and numerous judicial rulings affirming the rights of students with disabilities, they far too frequently remain isolated and separately educated within the Zimbabwe Education system.

They are often provided with a diluted, inferior education and denied meaningful opportunities to learn. For these reasons, Jairos Jiri Association strives to promote policy and effective practices that ensure inclusive educational experiences for students of all ages with disabilities.
Jairos Jiri Association is also undertaking comparative studies in order to come up with at least two model inclusive schools in Zimbabwe within two years.

Simultaneously, JJA shall be actively pushing for system reform in regular schools that shall result in improved outcomes for students with disabilities.

JJA shall always keep its advocacy efforts intentional and focused by developing strong relationships with education authorities, community leaders and civil society in general.

Lobby and Advocacy Programme has had notable milestones in the Association’s endeavour to help improve the lives of People with Disabilities. In order to achieve these milestones JJA makes use of and adheres to known international, regional and national legislations to which Zimbabwe is a signatory such as the United Nations Human Rights Bill (1948), Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities (CRPD) (Zimbabwe: ratified 2014) and the Disabled Persons Act (1996) to mention a few. It is from these legal frameworks that the JJA Lobby and Advocacy programme activities were hinged. The main task was to convince Society at all levels that People with Disabilities should be awarded services and equal opportunities as all other citizens not as charity but as human rights which they should enjoy. This resulted in a lot of communities and local leadership observing the rights of people with disabilities in JJA operational areas.
Men and Women with Disabilities participating at a voter education workshop in Mudzi District for the 2013 harmonised Elections
This five-year program has sought to secure the inclusion of people with disabilities in Zimbabwe's governance systems by advocating for their accessibility to polling stations and thus enhancing their ability to vote secretly and independently. The programme also aimed at ensuring proportional representation of PwDs in Parliament, other decision making bodies, quota system in employment, lobbying for the creation of a disability ministry and the enactment and implementation of disability legislation in Mutoko and Mudzi districts. The programme ended in 2013 and resulted in over 750 PwDs getting positions of authority and over 1 000 boys, girls, en and women with disabilities got assistive devices which improved their mobility and independence.
Community Based Rehabilitation (CBR)

The Jairos Jiri Association’s Community Based Rehabilitation (CBR) Programme was initiated to ensure that PwDs maximize their physical and mental abilities, access required services and equal opportunities to achieve full economic and social integration into their communities.

The CBR Programme has the following interventions:-

- Health
- Education
- Livelihoods
- Social
- Empowerment
- HIV and AIDS
- Gender
- Sexual Reproductive Health Rights (SRHR)
CBR Interventions and activities

The activities carried out in the CBR programme include the following:-

- Identification, assessments and treatment of boys, girls, women and men with disabilities
- Home visits to develop intervention strategies for individual clients
- Referrals and follow up for appropriate various services to providers
- Making available assistive devices to needy boys, girls, men and women with disabilities
- Carry out economic empowerment programmes for PwDs and this includes loan revolving and training

Expanded CBR Program

- There is need to expand the CBR programme to cover more wards in the operational districts and new districts in Zimbabwe.

- JJA will employ a new strategy of working with Village Health Workers under the Ministry of Health and Child care instead of employing field workers, thereby reducing the running costs and serving more boys, girls, men and women with disabilities.

- JJA will engage funding partners to chat the way forward.
The Jairos Jiri Association and Oekumenische Hilfe Zimbabwe partnership was established in 1985 with support from Oekumenische Hilfe Zimbabwe funding the JJA scholarship programme for pupils with disabilities. Since then over 500 hundred of capable but poor boys and girls with disabilities have benefitted immensely from this important project. Situation from 2010 to 2015

While the years 2010 up to 2015 had challenges of droughts in other areas of Zimbabwe, inflation was also another challenge which was caused prices of commodities to rise. Against this background, most parents could not afford to send their children to school, more so for boys and girls with disabilities, resulting in many school dropouts. Hats-off for Oekumenische Hilfe Zimbabwe for their inwavering support which has taken the above children from primary to secondary and tertiary education.

The gratitude, hope and meaningfulness of life as expressed by the many beneficiaries of the scholarship Fund and our deep indebtedness to Okumenische Hilfe Zimbabwe cannot be over emphasised. We look back with a great sense of pride and joy. We rejoice considering over 500 young intelligent boys and girls with disabilities, whose future would have been bleak without your intervention. They now have a very bright future because of your noble organisation. We shall remain ever so grateful for the moral and financial support which you have so generously rendered us unreservedly. Honestly, it has transformed the lives of so many boys and girls with disabilities and restored their dignity, independence and hope in totality.

Dear Sir or Madam

RE: LETTER OF APPRECIATION

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to Jairos Jiri Association towards the Educational Support in form of fees, food and accommodation. As a person with disability I could not afford commuting to school everyday neither was I going to be able to pay the fees. My dream is to complete my studies so that I would plough back my knowledge to the Association in return, to appreciate the assistance I am receiving. I pray that you would continue assisting me until I complete my studies.

I thank you.

Dear Sir or Madam

RE: LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Thank you very much for affording me a chance to get a scholarship for secondary school studies at Danhiko Secondary School. My mother being a single parent had failed to pay school fees for me and my young sister. The coming in of Jairos Jiri in payment of fees came as a glory from God.

I thank you.
